IN MEMORIAM

Maureen was a happy girl and brought joy to all who knew her. What she has left to our class is invaluable. She showed us all, through her bravery and courage, how to accept what comes to us without complaint. Only a girl who lived with God could have been that way.

In years to come she will hold a special place in the hearts of each of us.

Class

South Main

We were just "babies" in the minds of our parents, but to us it was the beginning of a new adventure. We remember so well the first day of school. It was in September, the third day, and in the year of 1944. Imagine, only twelve short years ago we were looking forward to our "graduation" day.

Many new and exciting things happened to each of us; new teachers to cope with, new faces, and most of all trying to accept the tasks which were before us.

All of us remember one little incident which caused quite a little excitement. It all came about when Britan Coiley had a fist fight with Don Moriarty. Boy, what a black eye Britan had, and of course, Carolyn Sieron came to the rescue by running home to get some ice cubes. The whole class got a "kick" out of the fight.

We also remember the trouble the girls caused by the passing of notes. Of course the boys would get interested and then trouble would really start. Marilyn, Jeanette, Carolyn, and Lou were the best note writers.

When the time came for both classes to unite at State Street School, we were all happy once more. Those were the years to remember.

Mechanic

We were a scared and quiet little group when we first walked up a long sidewalk to the little yellow schoolhouse on Mechanic Street. Miss Kennedy, our first teacher, took us in hand and got us settled in our assigned places complete with pencils and crayons. Our careers for the next twelve years were launched, some successful and some otherwise. Those first few years passed quickly.

Miss Bennett was our second grade teacher and there were numerous trips to the basement and water fountains. Marilyn got her tongue stuck one cold, winter day on the iron fence, nearly missing the start of school. Then it was upstairs to Miss Crowley's room and punishment for talking was standing in Mrs. Sherman's cloakroom. One or another of us usually ended up sitting on the stairs for playing too near the door.

It was next year that boys became a chief interest, especially Eddie Robinson. Judy D. joined us from Palmer this year, and she, Judy B. and Marl would chase Eddie constantly. Dotty misbehaved and had to sit on the floor on a newspaper. Dropped pencils were always hanging around someone's neck. There was always an embarrassed gum chewer tailing after Mrs. Sherman.

South Main was our next stop. Tiny, Billy, and Ed were all ardent baseball fans by now, playing diligently each noon. Swinging and rope jumping besides running to the "Store" were major attractions.

History

State Street next. We joined the other class from the South End, making many new friends. Don was Marilyn's boy this year and no one else had a chance. We had thrilling games of ball and tag-the ball always managing to end up in the river. Carolyn and Sandy were forever tardy, that two minute hike just seemed too long. Bev and Adolph were the artists and always had numerous pictures hanging. Marl and Judy D. always won the spelling bees.

High School

The High School was our next stop. More new events. We went on our first hayride-almost freezing-but having a good time.

Eighth grade passed with everyone looking forward to the next year when we could go upstairs and be recognized by the big kids. Sandy Moody and Don Moriarty received the outstanding eighth grade awards.

Initiation was the big thing our freshman year. We put on a play titled "Feudin' Mountain Boys."

The Sophomore year brought thoughts of Canada to the French Club. Our One-Act won under Mrs. Harrington's directorship. It was "The Red Key."

Our Junior play "This Way to Heaven" also took first prize. The theme of the Junior Prom was "Cupid's Holiday." Judy B. was chosen queen.

Eddie Robinson and Don Moriarty were picked as Boy's State Representatives and Judy Braskie went to Girl's State.

Seniors at long last with our Senior play providing some welcome money for Washington. The play was "Spooky Junction" a rollicking comedy enjoyed by all. The Senior basketball players, after a successful four years, played in their last tournament game. Judy D. was chosen as D. A. R. representative. Jean was our Betty Crocker Homemaker. Don was chosen to represent Monson High at Good Government Day in Boston.

We were thrilled when it was announced that "The Monkey's Paw" won the trophy for the third time. It was placed in the trophy case inscribed with "Class of '56."

Our Washington trip was enjoyed by all. Mr. Friedmann and Miss Correll were entertaining chaperons and there was never a dull moment. Mr. Friedmann and the Freshmen deserve a word of thanks for the beautiful job they did on the Senior Reception. Class night entertainment was excellent. We enjoyed doing the show and the audience seemed pleased with us--producing a very successful evening.

Graduation at long last. Looking back at all the fun we had together brought both smiles and tears. There were final goodbyes and each began his new life without Monson High School.

Class Will

We, the class of 1956, being of sound mind and body, make this our last will and testament.

Judith Braskie "Judy" wills her dimples to Susie Goepp.

Carol Brouthers "Carol" wills her flannel nightgown to Kathy Church, when and if Kathy can meet the dimensions.

Beverly Case "Bev" wills her auburn hair to Donna Comfort.

Judith Coolong "Judy" wills her Connecticut boys to Nancy Robichaud.

Judith Daly "Judy" wills her "white" basketball sneakers to Barbara Namiotko. Please try and keep them white, Barb.

Martha De George "Marty" wills her job at the Launderwell to anyone who wants to buy a new Ford--on the installment plan.

Jeanette Foisy "Jan" wills her squeaky voice to Alice Coleman.

Eleanor Furgal "Ellie" wills her D.A. to Paul Mayberry. Ellie's is shorter than yours, Paul.

Barbara Guertin "Barb" wills her hair to Carolyn Murphy.

David Haley "Dave" wills his shyness to Harry Baklin last year.

Jean Harrington "Jean" wills her cheering uniform to Martha Jean Madison. In fourteen years, Martha Jean, it may fit.

David Isham "Dave" wills his handwriting to Mr. Martin. Do "H's" really come down to the line, Mr. Martin?

Lucille Johnson "Lu" wills her clown faces to Ringling Brother's Barnum and Bailey's Hall of Fame.

Adolph Jurczyk "Ade" wills his ability to blush at the wrong time to Barbara Wright.

Marilyn Lunden "Marlsy" wills her muscles to Noami Ball.

Frank Magrone "Tiny" wills his clothes to the Salvation Army. They should have enough to outfit the whole Army now, Tiny.

William Magrone "Bill" wills his trombone to Mr. Hadad, Bill won't be needing it now.

Dorothy Manganello "Dottie" wills her glasses to Pat Kelley.

Robert Meuresse "Bob" wills his job with Koran's Dairy to his brother, David.

John Midura "John" wills his soccer uniform, his basketball sneakers, and his baseball glove to Ernie Chaples.

Sandra Moody "Sandy" wills her knitting needles to anyone who likes red sweaters. Sandy gives lessons too.

Donald Moriarty "Don" wills his basketball uniform to Bobbie Moriarty.

Richard Noble "Rit" wills his job at the A&P to any First National or Co-op boy who's looking for "advancement."

John O'Brien "John" thought that he would will his car, but he decided that even though the saying is "you can't take it with you" he would try to sneak it over the border.

Helynn O'Connell "Dolly" wills her job at the Coffee Shop to Kathy Haley.

Roberta Roach "Bobbie" wills her lungs to science. Maybe science can do something with them, Bobbie.

Edward Robinson "Eddie" wills his false tooth to Charlie Hulse.

Robert Senecal "Bob" wills his attendance record to David Fox.

Carolyn Sieron "Carolyn" wills her driving habits to those in the Driver Education Course.

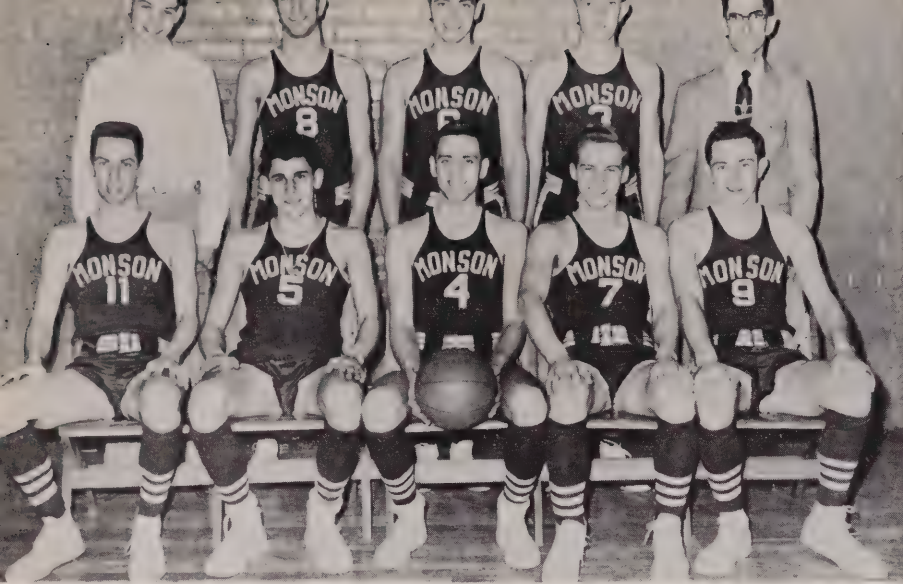

Rosalie Underwood "Chubby" wills her nickname to Marie Monaghan. She's not really "Chubby" either, Marie.

Sandra Warka "Sandy" wills her trouble with Chemistry to Guy McCarron.

Alicia Wilber "Willie" wills her diet to anyone who thinks they can handle the "goodies" racket.

The varsity basketball team enjoyed a very good season this year, winning 17 games while losing only 3. The team was invited to the tournament in Amherst once again, but were defeated in their second game against Commerce. Although heart-broken after that defeat, they all looked back on a very successful season.

The girls had a very successful season this year, winning nine of their fifteen games. Our thanks go to Mr. Madison, our coach.

Coach Emrich

Tiny

Our coach, "Coach" Moriarty, has been coaching sports at Monson High now for many years, and has been doing an excellent job. But most all of his boys think that he has done exceptionally well during the last few years, turning out championship teams in soccer and basketball last year, and producing a very good basketball squad this year. To us, there are no words that can really describe "Coach." We all think that he is terrific, and certainly "one-in-a-million."

Our principal Mr. Holley, was the recipient of the 17th Harold M. Gore Memorial Award of the Western Massachusetts Small High School Basketball Tournament. The annual award was presented to Mr. Holley in tribute to his outstanding service to boy's basketball over a period of 30 years. Mr. Holley has been a civic leader as well as principal of Monson High School, for many years. We are honored to be associated with him.
